

FITZ BROTHERS

MEDIAKIT 2026

The Fitz Brothers are an Austrian pop/indie duo consisting of brothers Florian and Felix Fitz.

After years of pursuing individual projects, they

- • • reunited to develop a sound that blends catchy pop
- • • melodies with emotional depth and cinematic storytelling.

With songs such as “Golden Trees,” “Masterpiece,” and “Maybe It Was Love,” they reach over 12,000 monthly listeners on Spotify. Their music explores themes of self-discovery, closeness, and vulnerability—carried by warm harmonies, honest lyrics, and a natural chemistry that only brothers can share.

Debut Album

Light Life Love

Light Life Love is the debut album by brothers Felix and Florian Sebastian Fitz. The ten tracks blend pop, folk, indie, and cinematic elements into a warm, emotional journey through love, relationships, and the bright moments of life.

With acoustic guitars, synths, and orchestral textures, the Fitz Brothers create an atmospheric and introspective soundscape. The single "Call Me A Liar" explores themes of conflict and reconciliation.

Released on September 26, 2025, Light Life Love is an honest, heartfelt, and colorful work.
